

Editorial

Welcome to the 2023 edition, Volume 7, of the Journal of Anti-corruption Law. This edition contains six academic articles.

- Kirstin Hagglund and Franaaz Khan in their article explore the gendered impact of corruption: women as victims of sextortion in South Africa.
- This is followed by Atel Ongee Paito who focuses on corruption and the right to education in South Sudan.
- In her contribution, Julie Lugulu tackles bribery in accessing Kenyan citizenship.
- In his article Paul Mukiibi explores the implications of the coffee agreement between the government of Uganda and Uganda Vinci Coffee Co. Ltd.
- Ethel Makhubele and Chesné Albertus discuss witness protection in anti-money laundering cases.
- Dare Joseph Ayinde explores corruption in public procurement in Nigeria.

Memorial lecture and Keynote address

- In addition, this edition includes the speech delivered on 23 February 2023 at the inaugural Lovell Fernandez memorial lecture titled: The Global Shadow Economy by Mark Pieth.
- The keynote address by Irvin Kinnes delivered at the fifth annual conference of the Department of Criminal Justice and Procedure and the Journal of Anti-Corruption Law on 7 September 2023.