

Multilingual Margins

A journal of multilingualism from the periphery

Volume 9

Issue 1

September 2022

EDITORS

CHRISTOPHER STROUD

*University of the Western Cape
South Africa*

QUENTIN WILLIAMS

*University of the Western Cape
South Africa*

CHAPTERS

- Linguistic Marginalia: A Special Issue on African Urban Youth Language (AUYL) Practices 2
PHILIP W RUDD
- Linguistic Features in a Marginal Corpus. The Case of Written Camfranglais, a Cameroon Youth Language 12
AUGUSTIN E EBONGUE
- Language on the margins: multilinguality, marginality and linguistic precarity in the Nigerian context 26
TAIWO OLORUNTOBA-OJU
- Empaako, the Magic Word: A Special Form of Address Used in Western Uganda 50
GERALD HEUSING
- Strategies for Identifying Sheng: What counts as Sheng? 61
PETER GITHINJI
- The 'rural-urban' mix in the use of prepositions and prepositional phrases by students of literature in Kenyan universities 74
ESTHER K. MBITHI
- Escaping the Margins of Society: New Media and Youth Language Practices across the Rural Urban Divide in Kenya 83
FRIDAH K ERASTUS, OCHIENG' ORWENJO & MARGARET N GATHIGIA
- Marginality, subversive language and sex tourism: Multilingual practices at the Kenyan coast 101
NICO NASSENSTEIN
- The Performative Grammars of Civic Action: Decolonizing Interstices of Language through Theatricalizing Sheng 117
KARIN A WAIDLEY