

Multilingual Margins

A journal of multilingualism from the periphery

Volume 11

Issue 2

December 2024

GUEST EDITORS

CHRISTOPHER STROUD

*University of the Western Cape
South Africa*

LYNN MARIO MENEZES
DE SOUZA

Universidade de Sau Paulo Brazil

QUENTIN WILLIAMS

*University of the Western Cape
South Africa*

ARTICLES

- Multilingualism triangulated: A systematic method for analysing multilingual contexts 2
MIRIAM WEIDL AND SAM GOODCHILD
- Linguistically world-travelling and speaking in a Bifid tongue: Contributions of a Latina decolonial feminist reconceptualization of the self to rethink multilingualism in a decolonial vein 18
GABRIELA VERONELLI
- Where is the noise? Rethinking language, meaning, and noise through a decolonial and crip orientation 29
LUIZ HENRIQUE MAGNANI
- Book review: Speaking subjects in multilingualism research: Biographical and speaker-centred approaches, edited by Judith Purkarthofer and MiaCha Flubacher 44
TASNEEM PLATO