

Upside Down

- Jamie Conway

We were upside down on the steps of the Grand Hall.
Our shoes leaning against pillars older than us, telling stories we knew would only grow younger with us.
With our feet touching the sky and our heads on the ground, I knew there wasn't much more to life than being
upside down.
